Bundesrat in considering coal tariff measure February 6 and voting strictly according sectional interests rather than party lines, recommended by vote 24 to 12 with four abstentions that government not issue coal tariff ordinance. West Phalia, Rheinland-Pfaltz and Saar favored tariff. Saxony abstained, others against. Government constitutionally not bound by Bundesrat recommendations on ordinances pertaining customs regulations.

Westrick, Economy Minister and Hartman, Finance Minister presented government case. Said government realized consequences coal tariff in terms commercial policy, relations with United States, but stressed temporary nature. After vote Westrick said government would not accept Bundesrat's recommendation.
